SMELTER SOLD

Corralitos Company Disposes
Of Plant At Juarez

GUGGENHEIMS BOUGHT IT

Still Retain Concentrator And Sampling Works.—Works Will Suspend For A Short Time.—Price Not Known.—The Plant Cost Sixty Thousand Dollars To Build.—Reasons For Selling.

Through a deal that has been recently consummated, the Guggenheim company has acquired the smelting plant of the Corralitos company at Juarez, and the works will close down for a short time until the new management has perfected its arrangements. The concentrator and sampling works were not included in the sale and these will be retained by the company.

The Guggenheims are among the wealthiest and most extensive operators in smelter enterprises in the United States, and stand high financially. They have vast interests in Colorado and Mexico. Their specialty is the treating of copper ore.

The present smelter was erected at a cost in the neighborhood of sixty thousand dollars, but many improvements have been made, which have increased its value to $100,000.

It is understood that the Corralitos company decided to dispose of the smelter, as their extensive and growing interests in other lines of business were constantly demanding more attention, and as the time had come when the increasing shipments of ore demanded a bigger plant they determined not to add to their own responsibilities but to accept an advantageous offer for the property. The price paid is not definitely known.

LINDELL HOTEL

To be Thoroughly Overhauled by the Present Management.

Several changes are to be made in the present arrangements of the Lindell hotel for the convenience of the guests.

Charles Siegler, the proprietor, secured a long lease of the ground floor yesterday, and will take possession the latter part of the summer. Mr. Siegler will convert the store now occupied by E. B. Welch into an office, and will cut a door leading to the stairway. The corner store now occupied by the El Paso Saddlery company will be fitted up as a lunch room and cafe, and a private dining room for ladies will be put in the store now occupied by Ainsworth's wholesale grocery house. Sample rooms will also be provided for drummers who their goods can be shown to the best advantage and it is the intention of Mr. Siegler to spend several thousand dollars in making these extensive improvements, and proposed changes.

An Epidemic of Whooping Cough.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—John E. Clifford, Proprietor, Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Malt-Nutrine

the king of tonics, invigorates and completely restores an impaired constitution. It is prepared by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Ass'n., which guarantees its merit.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by all druggists.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers act as a faultless pill should, cleansing and reviving the system instead of weakening it. They are mild and sure, small and pleasant to take, and entirely free from objectionable drugs. They assist rather than compel. Fred Schaefer druggist.

FAMOUS LAW SUIT AT DALLAS.

Engrossing Attention Not Only
From Members Of The Baptist Church But From The Public At Large.

The trial of the famous suit of Rev. Dr. S. A. Hayden vs. Rev. Dr. J. B. Cranfill et al., now going on before Judge Richard Morgan of the forty-fourth district court at Dallas is engrossing much attention, not only from members of the Baptist church, but from the public at large.

Nearly all last week was spent by the attorneys in the case in arguing special and general demurrers. Judge Morgan overruled the general demurrer of the defendant's to the original petition of the plaintiff and ordered the trial to proceed, Monday was spent in selecting a jury and the taking of testimony was commenced yesterday and continued today.

This is one of the most famous law suits ever tried in a Dallas court. Every person connected with the case is of prominence. The plaintiff's specific grounds of complaint are wrongs alleged to have been committed by defendants in entering into a conspiracy to commit wrongs which consist of an unlawful interference with plaintiff's newspaper business; libel by the production and publication of bitter challenges against plaintiff at the San Antonio convention of the Baptist church; plaintiff's unwarranted expulsion from said convention, for all of which he claims damages in the sum of $100,000.

The defendants in the case are: Dr.

J. B. Cranfill, editor of the Texas Baptist Standard; Rev. Dr. J. B. Gambrell, J. M. Robertson, Hon. Dudley G. Wooten, George W. Truitt, H. C. Gilmer, Col. C. C. Slaughter, T. J. Walne and J. B. Riddle, all of Dallas county; L. M. May, of Travis county; Dr. B. H. Carroll, W. H. Jenkins, J. B. Scarborough, S. P. Brooks, J. S. Tanner, J. M. Carroll, L. R. Millican and C. C. Carroll, all of McLennan county; B. H. Carroll, Jr., of Parker county; W. R. Maxwell, of Bell county; R. T. Hanks, of Taylor county; J. C. Burkett, of Robertson county; Bennett Hatcher, of Ellis county; L. B. Kimbrough, of Clay county; R. A. Lee, of Childress county; G. W. Barnes, of Johnson county; E. A. Bates, of Brown county, and J. C. Gentry, of Caldwell county.

Nearly all of these are very prominent Baptist ministers. Col. C. C. Slaughter of Dallas is a leader in Baptist circles and is a millionaire cattleman, being said to be one of the wealthiest stock men in the country. Trial of the case is expected to consume at least ten more days. Every point is being contested by the attorneys and is a heated legal battle. Many prominent Baptists over the state are in attendance on the trial and the court room has been crowded since the case began.—San Antonio Express.

Happy Thoughts.

To please, attract and give people something to talk about, is an art in writing a prosaic advertisement. Hood of Sarsaparilla fame, is the originator in an extensive sense of the idea of using proverbs and wise saws as a prefix to a pleasant introduction of the well known virtues of America's Greatest Medicine. These quaint quotations often fit the news of the day with startling directness and the moral is easily drawn, with natural good to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

MISS DOROTHY M. BOWMAN.

The charming little dramatic reader and impersonator, now here.

Miss Bowman is a true type of the fair women of the south, although for the past number of years she has been a resident of California.

Her utter absence of reserve and formality at once places one at ease and you are at once attracted by her charming manner and personality. Her charming presence, and matchless grace and innocent abandon would create admiration even in the cold and unappreciative. She is fair, of middle height, pretty, with lovely eyes, and moves with a graceful freedom that almost compels one to think it well studied. But it is not so. She is as demure and innocent of posing as a child. Her voice is admirably adapted to her work, with its perfect culture and sweet accent found so often in our southern women.

"Oh! it is only with the greatest difficulty that I talk to newspaper men, as I never-like," said she, "to read what I have said. Yes, I have made a thorough study of the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam, and prefer the rendering of Justin McCarthy, although I give it my own oriental interpretation."

"While I pay much attention to efforts that require more dramatic impulse I love most my baby work in which I give selections from the poems of Eugene Field and other writers of this style of verse. Ella Wheeler Wilcox is another favorite with me, and Rudyard Kipling too. When I recite his 'Vampire,' I am simply carried away by the beauty and force of his lines.

"Lascia, in which is portrayed the type of character of the western man telling the story of his sweetheart while under the influence of drink, appeals to my inmost feelings, with a strange fascination, while my heart aches with pity for the poor girl in her sorrowful life without hope or brighter promise."

"I have always endeavored to adapt my costumes to the nature of my subject, and you know this requires a great many gowns and costumes of various descriptions." In answer to the question whether it were not a great tax to commit to memory selections which she uses in her work, she laughingly replied "Not in the slightest. It is more a pleasure than a task. Sometimes I take a poem of twenty five stanzas of eight lines each, and easily learn to recite it in less than two hours."

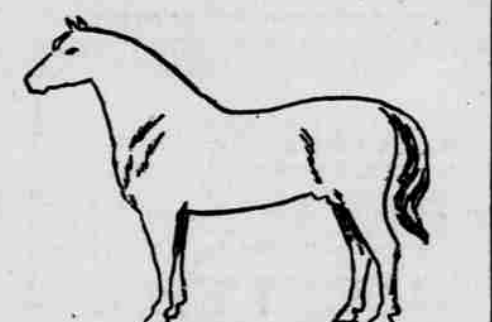

"I am delighted with the El Paso people and have received the most courteous treatment at their hands. I go from here to Mexico to join my mother. Upon my return I shall certainly stop off at El Paso, and perhaps deliver a lecture on the Rubaiyat."

Miss Bowman will give a recital at Myra's opera house, Thursday evening. Seats will be on sale at Kline's the day of the performance. Prices 50, 35, and 25 cents according to location.
